"Kiss You"

I'd wake up, and make love, to you if I had you I wanna touch, you so much, but I'm not allowed to What I hate, is to wait, but in this case I'm patient I'm discreet, I'm not weak, I just need a moment

If I leaned over and tried to kiss you
Would I be wrong, after so long to kiss you Would you pretend, we're only friends, if I kissed you
At least I can dream of you in the scene, when I kiss
you
At least I can dream of you in the scene, when I kiss
you...

On one hand, we are friends, but still my mind wanders Through sad streets, and alleys, I just keep growing fonder

If I leaned over and tried to kiss you
Would I be wrong, after so long to kiss you
Would you pretend, we're only friends, if I kissed you
At least I can dream of you in the scene, when I kiss
you
