We were talkin' 'bout Casanova and the five senses,
And I knew you were the one.
The taste of your lips,
The scent of your shirt,
The sight of the sunset as we danced in the crashing waves.

My casanova,
Love me forever.

We were dancing under the starlight,
Your eyes holding mine,
And the world's so far away.
I feel your heartbeat hear you calling.
I understand this moment and the mystery.

My casanova,
Love me forever.

I've come undone,
I'm overcome with your love,
I've lost my grip,
I can't resist,
You are the one.

My casanova,
My casanova,
My casanova,
Love me forever.

Je t'aime,
Je t'aime,
Je t'aime,
Love me forever.
