Could it be that she just walked up to me?
Close my eyes and let her take my breath
Away, away

What should I say
I stumble on those words
This is your chance
You shouldn't let it slip
Away, away

I know this sounds absurd
(I know this sounds absurd)
But I'm so impressed with her

Take me back to when you sleep
I swear I'll be the one you wanted
Come on, come on now
It's time to get off your feet

Bring me up from underneath
Because its all I ever wanted
Come on, woah

This never had such a lasting effect
I'm a nervous wreck
Cause you keep me in check
For a long night
This moment's been playing in my mind
For some time

Oh, oh I can tell you no, no
Just what I'm thinking of, of
Come a little closer darling
Show me what you've got

Take me back to when you sleep
I swear I'll be the one you wanted
Come on, come on now
It's time to get off your feet

Bring me up from underneath

Because its all I ever wanted
Come on, woah

This is our night and you're my girl
You're in my arms, clothes on the floor
And I, I can't get enough of this

Take me back to when you sleep
I swear I'll be the one you wanted
Come on, come on now
Its time to get off your feet

So bring me up from underneath
Because it's all I ever wanted
Come on, woah
(Come on, come on)
Whoa
(Come on, come on)
Whoa
(Come on, come on)
Whoa
