You said you'd miss me more
As you left town.
I've been holding onto memories,
They're safe and sound.
Wrapped tightly in my arms
They're mine to keep
And I'll hold them forever.
I know you have your doubts, that's fine
But we can make it out tonight.
I can't go on without your kiss
(I can't go on without you)
We'll be alright.
We don't have to let it all go.
We'll survive.
I said I miss you more,
You said goodnight.
Put down the phone.
See you in my dreams tonight.
I miss your lips - your touch
It's all I know.
Soon you'll be here by my side.
A thousand miles til I'm back home
I need to let you know you're not alone.
I can't go on without your kiss
(I can't go on without you)
We'll be alright.
We don't have to let it all go.
We'll survive.
I'll be praying that you'll love me
Through this until the end.
It's not okay that you're better off
Without me.
I can't go on without your kiss
(I can't go on without you)
We'll be alright.
We don't have to let it all go.
We'll survive the worst tonight.
