God I love her
Never said nothing;
Not a word
Got it together
Now she's better
So that's what I've heard

Is she making eyes at someone new tonight?

I'm the boy who had it all
Until I broke her heart
Took her for granted
I could stand if I weren't torn apart
This is the note I should have wrote
I wish that you were here cause

I feel like my heart's falling apart
Over and around the seams
And no, don't go
Please just stay for now

It's the simple things
I always find I can't let go
And everything we ever had
Has now become your ghost

Should I call her?
Why even bother?
I think I'll just lay low

So stay down 'till the coast is clear
This love is overrated

I feel like my heart's falling apart
Over and around the seams
And no, don't go
Please just stay for now

And baby, I'm scared about what we did
The thing's we said and the times we can't get Back now

Back now
Back now

Stay down 'till the coast is clear
This love is overrated

Stay down 'till the coast is clear
This love is overrated

If you can hear me, know
I'm sorry and I wish that
You were mine, but this is what I get
For giving up and giving you away

I feel like my heart's falling apart
Over and around the seams
No, don't go

I feel like my heart's falling apart
And no, don't go

And baby, I'm scared about what we did
The thing's we said and times we can't get
Back now
Back now
Back now

I feel like my heart fall
And I feel like my heart falls
