Visit "Grow" on MotoLyrics.com

I feel so beat up again
I've been holding on to a place that I don't belong
And my heart it sees all the things I want to be
I want to behold all the standards of my life until I know what I love...Grow
Until I know what I love...Grow
Until I know what I love...Grow
I've spent time on life support
And I know how it feels
I've got a sickness that's all I know
I need time to mend
So that I can feel whole again
With no need to pretend
That I know who I am until I know what I love
Until I know what I love...Grow
Until I know what I love...Grow
