It's been a real cold summer honey
I'm talking loneliness and rock'n roll
I'm in over my head
Yeah, I dug myself a little hole
And I've been thinking about you overtime
And overtime is messing up my mind
It's just a matter of a moment
I'm not gonna be this way all the time
Can't you feel, my disease
Can't you feel my disease?
It's been a really hard year too honey
And it's not easy for me to explain
She's got a beautiful heart
But the two of us are on different planes
And I been drinking really heavily,
Just so I can ease my pain
Thank GOD for cotton candy too, sugar
I've been riding high on Casey's train
Can't you feel my disease
