"Don't be afraid"

It was a weekday, I started to think good thoughts.
Looking back to my past, something wasnt alright:

Laughter is good for me, but is it really enough?..
Sitting on this old bench, crying , and I cant stop.

Life isn't fair, that is as clear as a sun rising.
We all have troubles to face, and were trying.

Nothing will happen when you will turn off your weapon.
Now you can start over, and you don't need to be afraid.

Don't be afraid!
Don't..
Hey yeah yeah yeah..

Face the true,
you're alone now my friend.
You'll try to start anew,
And forget the past.
