

Stainless

"No hope alone"

Visit "No hope alone" on MotoLyrics.com

It was a day, long time ago
You couldn't hear me, not at all I was forgotten, now I know You needed me but you kept fall

And I don't want to be right, and I don't want to find you down there on the floor
You may arranged your cravat tight, but you are knocking on the wrong door

Talking and talking but you can't see
'cause in your bubble there is no one, included me I was trying to tell you all along the human has no hope alone

You walking with your erect back, and you got no advice to take You're calling me a broken track, and if I am, I'm gonna break

And it's so hard to be right know, I can't find you when I'm looking down the floor You are decisive fearless knight, but you're shopping at the wrong store

Talking and talking and you can't see
'cause in your bubble there is no one, included me
I was trying to tell you all along
the human has no hope alone

You need a mirror just for you, to see an hasty guy that can only disagree Because I tried to tell you all along
the human has no hope alone

Visit Stainless page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.