Listen friend
It's a cheep old trick that help's everyone get heal so quick...

Take a moment, breathe Now close your eyes and when you'll open them you can scream for the sky

You look a little nervous now you need a break You passed an exhausting weekend now your smiles are fake

Only for one day lie and get your muse Just put it all away and listen to the blues

'Cause you had faild for the real test
but in the second time you will pass
and I will allways be there by your side

When you are rising to the top
you can fall down but please don't stop
'cause it will end until your tears will dry up And you'll be there

Listen friend
It is not your fault that you are not like them that you do what you want

Some things will never change
There is no one to blame and there is so mutch pain that you will have to take

Try to have some target that you'll need to face and the other people each one have his case

To be first in the best
It all depends in you Now it's time to make a dreamily wish come true

'Cause you had faild for the real test
and I will allways be there by your side
