

Death In December "Ashes Of A Valentine"

I'm barely breathing, I'm slowly drifting,
Away from everything
I'm screaming for something, that's never caring
You just save yourself again

I hate the way that you taste,
I feel the ground break beneath my feet
Go and save yourself, theres no one else here for me

A thousand times I've let you slip by,
The tears I've shed run dry
The taste of midnight, Is all I live by
You saved yourself for the last time

I hate the way that you taste,
I feel my heart break beneath your feet
Go save yourself, but there's no way out without me
