This could be our last night
Yeah I'm falling apart
I coul'd
This could be our last words
So let's take a chance
The kiss are not away
Take my hand again and I'll ask you
Where are you? where are you now?
When the whole world wakes up
Think I'ts about simple
Where were you when I called?
Where were you when I called?
When the whole world wakes up
Think I'ts about simple
Where were you when I called?
Where were you when I called?
This could be our last time
So take a breath and ask why
Take a breath and ask why
This could be our last chance
Yeah I'll never say goodbye
The train is one last time and
Take my hand again and I'll ask you
Where are you? where are you now?
When the whole world wakes up
Think it's about simple
Where were you when I called?
Where were you when I called?
When the whole world wakes up
Think it's about simple
Where were you when I called?
Where were you when I called?
Nothing really matters
Nothing really matters with now
I guess it's so infected
I guess it's so infected
I guess it's so infected
Well no one knows
Take my hand again and I'll ask you
Where are you? where are you now?
When the whole world wakes up
Think it's about simple

Where were you when I called?
Where were you when I called?
When the whole world wakes up
Think it's about simple
Where were you when I called?
Where were you when I called?
WHEN THE WHOLE WORLD WAKES UP!
Think it's about simple
Where were you when I called?
Where were you when I called?
WHEN THE WHOLE WORLD WAKES UP!
Think it's about simple
Where were you when I called?
Where were you when I called?
This could be our last chance to forget
