

Death In June

Eyes like little dreams
Come true
We are all
Treading waters
Especially in the new Europa!

With all its satellites
We'll see
The blossoming of the Judas tree
Any colour infidelity
That weeping wound
That's hard to see

From my circle I'll never stray
Or follow clay feet of yesterday
To broken circles
Well left behind
Those foreign hands
On foreign times
And, in their wake
I'll disagree
To cast my own nativity

With all its satellites
We'll see
The blossoming of the Judas tree
Any colour infidelity
That weeping wound
That's hard to see

For misjudged moments
Of misjudged times
Are for misjudged lives
That misjudged mine
Our dreams
Our dreams they never go
To devils above
And grey rainbows
Spilt seed on stony ground
The only sperm

That ants surround
My hands
My wounds
And, nothing else
I smell traitor
Time the divider
