Where do you go, when you're alone and in your head?
Why do they know you, is your story painted in red?
What do you see, what do you dream when you're asleep?
What have they seen of you
Are you afraid of what's been said?
And if time stood still
If you won't be your witness, no one ever will

I hear a voice that's in my head
Don't let me down
'Cause I can't hold the future in my head
So many things I should have said
That let me down
'Cause I would be a lucky man if time stood on this head
Don't let me down

Don't let me down, don't let them see
These shadows fallin' over me
Where do you go, when you're awake and in your head?
Why do they know you, is your story painted red?
And if time stood still
If I can't be my teacher, no one ever will

I hear the voice that's in my head
Don't let me down
'Cause I can't hold the future in my head
So many things I should have said
That let me down

I can't choose the road ahead
Close my eyes and hold my breath
Hope my little death won't let me down
I can't choose the road ahead
Close my eyes and hold my breath
Hope my little death won't let me down

Don't let me down!
Don't let me down!

And if time stood still
If I can't be my teacher, no one ever will

I hear the voice that's in my head
Don't let me down
'Cause I can't hold the future in my head
So many things I should have said
That let me down

'Cause I would be a lucky man if time stood on this head
Don't let me down
