[Verse 1]

Does anybody care about me
Does anybody see the real me
Does anybody know anything
Well today the only thing we need is love

[Chorus]

We only need love to live
So everybody open up your hearts
All we need to live is love
So we wanna hear that boom, boom right from the start

[Verse 2]

When I forgive you do you forget me
When I'm mad at you do you still love me
When I help you do you think I'm joking
Well today the only thing we need is love

[Chorus]

We only need love to live
So everybody open up your hearts
All we need to live is love
So we wanna hear that boom, boom right from the start

[Verse 3]

Do you and my family still love me
Do they pretend they don't really know me
Do you still say that you are with me
Or are you married to someone else as well

[Bridge]

I don't care if we have love or not
Things can still be unfair
Like in the morning when you wake up
And have totally messy hair
Wait Â– I'm overreacting
Please say you still love me
I hope I'm the only one who you've married
Well today I'm happy because I have love

[Chorus]

We only need love to live

So everybody open up your hearts
All we need to live is love
So we wanna hear that boom, boom right from the start
