Death... It reigns strongly in the sanctuary.
The sons of God are buried in this unholy ground.
Forever trapped between here and Hell,
The reincarnation process has stopped.

Slaves must obey
And then be killed.
Tyrants must reign
And forever dominate.

We sent everyone to the grave, the weak ones are a pestilence we slay.
The slaves of all kind perished in the name of ugliness and perversion.

Slaves must obey
And then be killed.
Tyrants must reign
And forever dominate.

Death... It reigns strongly in the sanctuary.
The sons of God are buried in this unholy ground.
Forever trapped between here and Hell,
The reincarnation process has stopped.

Slaves are blinded
By their pathetic faith.
Tyrants are the Elite
For they have no humanity.

God is dead but we continue the genocide to spread the evil plague.
We are not Satan's slaves but his servants, life is infected by our venom.

Slaves are blinded
By their pathetic faith.
Tyrants are the Elite
For they have no humanity.
