"Better Be Heaven"

This is the seventh time
And I've got seven reasons
And almost every time
It ends up in you leaving

Just give it one more chance
It's all about the trust
Don't close your eyes at night
Until our mouths have kissed

I'll count the steps to happiness
I've missed
They go

One's the touch
Two's the feeling
Three's the answer
Four the meaning
Five and six are the Devil's kicks
So seven better be heaven

I saw you turn to him
As the last guests were leaving
And then you caught my eye
Bowed your head in grieving
And say

One's the touch
Two's the feeling
Three's the answer
Four the meaning
Five and six are the Devil's kicks
So seven better be heaven (x2)
