It's nothing they say
She bangs away
How long will she play
And push us away
We have no idea
Lovers secret, suffering sweet
We have no idea
All the things she needs
Should've been clearer
Should've been clearer
Should've been clearer
It's such a shame
I know what everybody's sayin'
They suppose she's to blame
For all the abuse she's been takin'
Waiting alone
She's just a child at the station
They miss her at home
There must be some explanation
Should've been clearer
Should've been clearer
Should've been clearer
