Do you want to lay your head on my shoulder?
I don't mind if you cry.
Sometimes we all just need to let it out.

Just let your tears run down my arm,
So I can keep them in a blue jar.
We'll drink them later, so just let it out.

Let's take a walk just to clear our heads,
I don't mind that you're holding my hand.
You say you love me, so just let it out.

Your smile is a pleasant change from before,
When you thought that you coldn't take anymore.
Sometimes we all just need to let it out.
