Shots in your eyes.
Take her gun away.
It's gone in your eyes.
Forever I will write you letters of love, whether or not you read them.
Just to make you put your gun away.
Take her gun away.
Please accept my apology for what I did to you.
I've led you to believe that I love you.
It's gone in your eyes.
Things are changing.
Things are not the same.
I'm falling down.
Love cannot see through you, but how can I be the one,
to be here with you, for all time.
Take her gun away.
Forgive me for giving you the gun.
I know it's wrong for me to ask this of you, when I am to blame.
