How do I learn to fly?
When I'm down on my knees
How can I learn to love?
When I'm always begging you please

I've spent most of my life
Trying just to get by
I spent most of that time
On losing you

Now I gave you reasons
Disregarded feelings
Convinced myself that it's all true.

How do I learn to fly?
When I'm down on my knees
How can I learn to love?
When I'm always begging you please

How many moments passed me by?
How many times have I said I won't try...
To live my life and love like I mean it?
How many days will slip away?
How much pain does it take to see it?
To live my life and love like I mean it,

I keep all my secrets
Hid away down inside
I keep telling myself
Lie after lie

Now I played the part
Of a man with many hearts
But none of them ever meant to hurt you

How many moments passed me by?
How many times have I said I won't try...
To live my life and love like I mean it?
How many days will slip away?
How much pain does it take to see it?
To live my life and love like I mean it,

I'm gonna love, like I never ever loved before
I'm gonna live, like I only have one last wish
I'm gonna be, everything you ever wanted
Everything you need

How do I learn to fly?
Get me back on my feet
Don't give up on me
I'm begging you please

How many moments passed me by?
How many times have I said I won't try...
To live my life and love like I mean it?
How many days will slip away?
How much pain does it take to see it?
To live my life and love like I mean it
How many moments passed me by?
How many times have I said I won't try...
To live my life and love like I mean it?
To live my life and love like I mean it?
To live my life and love like I mean it?
How many days will slip away?
How much pain does it take to see it?
To live my life and love like I mean it
