

Starting Tuesday "She Is Lovely"

Visit "She Is Lovely" on MotoLyrics.com

She told me she'd call
So I sat by the phone all day
Waiting and pacing all around

She told me she'd changed
Said she'd found herself again
She said, "I'm sorry now"
Then put on her crown
And slipped away

But she is lovely still the same
And I will love her anyway
She says it's over now
but still somehow, I'll wait

I told her she'd changed
I said she'd lost herself again
I said, "I'm sorry now"
Then turned around
And walked away

But she is lovely still the same
And I will love her anyway
She says it's over now
but still somehow, I'll wait

She told me she'd try
That's all that I wanted

It's all desire
