Martyr of everything
Crow with a broken wing
Headed inbound
You fall to the ground
To tell your tale to whoever's around
Watching the world on a screen
Don't like your life, so you live in a dream
An acid that eats your spirit away
Get off your ass if you want to see change
Why don't you check for your soul
Lack of respect, with no goal
Apathetic - glazed over stare
Apathetic - just don't care
The devil is here, it's true
To crap all over you
You've cracked your skull
It means nothing at all
Because you don't care enough who takes the fall
Why don't you check for your soul
Lack of respect, with no goal
Apathetic - glazed over stare
Apathetic - just don't care
Sit and watch the world on a screen
Don't like your life, so you live in a dream
Your brain is stuck
You're out of luck
