

State Of Being "Nightmare"

Won over by desperate dreams
Wanting something out of reach
A friendship is dying again
Nervous cry with a tear falling from my eye
Never wanted to say goodbye
But "reality's" sin is my surprise
Right before my eyes...
Now that you're gone
You've stolen my heart and you don't even know why
What are you gonna choose?
Who the hell is gonna lose?
In your nightmares i'll exist to get my revenge
(i will be haunting you i wont be wanting you i will be haunting you)
All washed away by dreadful action
All put aside for Confusion
Torn up inside forgot who is kind blocked out of your mind... (again)
Who cares any way? there's always another day
There's always another soul
You can achieve a different goal
(there's always another dream... again)
Now that you're gone
You've stolen my heart and you don't even know why
No, you don't even know why...
What are you gonna choose?
Who the hell is gonna lose?
In your nightmares i'll exist to get my revenge
Do you ever miss the fun times we've had?
Oh, stop this dreaming...
I can't think anymore...
No...
What are you gonna choose?
Who the hell is gonna lose in your nightmare...
