in...
out... i touch the cold my breath i see so frozen deep inside of me this broken winter... has given up on time
i want the passion and the power to make light shine in the city every hour... reaching out to feel
breathing the air
taking the dare
listen...
eyes of outerspace
eyes of night still face... out...

you are so young just seventeen but idealistic dreams you see are power... people in the night
i'm still alone and i still want a bit more than i've been given in this hour... to rid my empty sight
seeking the heir (air)
taking the dare
listen...
eyes of outerspace
oh, eyes of night still face... out...
