I am running away to leave this world
Hyperwarp from all of my fears
A voyage for an unknown cause
A voyage to avoid my tears
I want to take you but i cant
You know the politics will reject
The laws that have me strapped and bound
Will tear apart my disrespect...
Negative one
Stars and suns light my way
Mapping out my suicide
Start a perfect human race
Mapping out my genocide
Change my course to deceive
No one knows where i'm going
Deceit will make you disbelieve
No one knows where i'm going
Negative one
I am running away to leave this world
Hyperwarp from all of my fears
A voyage for an unknown cause
A voyage to avoid my tears
And in my mind as i push the buttons
On my ship's dash-board controls
Distorted figures everywhere
A victim of the mind that knows...
Static in my brain is crushing me as x approaches -1
Mars explodes and shakes the earth as x approaches -
1
It all comes down... it's calculated
The one point... the one point of resolve
And you'll never reach this place
No matter what..
