Why is it so hard
Why can't we just ignore
And why do we beg for more
And why can't we close this door
This is the soundtrack of our lives

We say we're sorry
And we say it over and over
With every Fight there still comes no right
This is the soundtrack of our lives.

How much more can we take
How long till we walk away
And how long do we play this game
How do we win when we both betray
This is the soundtrack of our lives

You make me laugh I make you cry
You bother me I get you high
No matter how or hard we try
Together till the day we die
This is the soundtrack the same old sound.
