we kiss the stars we ride we are your main desire, your flesh we are cold we're so cold we are so cold we're so cold cold so cold we are so cold we're so cold

your mouth these words silence it turns on me we laugh my head falls back

we're so cold
