(Don Reid)

You're right we both could use a small vacation
It may not work but then again it might
You can go to California to see your mother And maybe when you get back things might be right.

Don't forget your raincoat it gets stormy in the west Don't forget your swimsuit you'll have sunshine at its best Don't forget to take some pictures everyone will want to see
And don't forget yourself when you're that far away
from me.

Call and let me know when you get there
And when she asks you why I'm not along Tell your mother business wouldn't let me
Have a good time but don't forget where you belong.

Don't forget your raincoat it gets stormy in the west Don't forget your swimsuit you'll have sunshine at its best
Don't forget to take some pictures everyone will want to see
And don't forget yourself when you're that far away
from me.

And don't forget yourself when you're that far away
from me...
