Chorus:

If she's guilty so am I
If she's forgotten how to cry,
If she gets lonely don't know why
If she's guilty so am I.

If she's changed I'll take the blame
If somehow she's not the same
If there's a distant look in her eyes
And she's lost the will to try.

If she seems bitter of other days
Seems to have lost her baptist ways
If the truth comes harder than a lie
If she's guilty so am I.

Chorus:

If she's guilty so am I
If she's forgotten how to cry,
If she gets lonely don't know why
If she's guilty so am I.

Chorus:

If she's guilty so am I
If she's forgotten how to cry,
If she gets lonely don't know why
If she's guilty so am I.

If she's guilty so am I
If she's forgotten how to cry
If she seems lonely don't know why
If she's guilty so am I...
