When World War II was over We trimmed the tree alone But we saved the star for daddy 'Cause daddy was coming home

We bought momma a new dress We bought daddy a tie But he brought us each something That money couldn \tilde{A} ¢ \hat{A} $^{\text{TM}}$ t buy

The greatest Christmas present Is something you can \tilde{A} ¢ \hat{A} M t buy

Iâ€Â™ ve talked to pa this evening
For an hour on the phone
He said, "Donâ€Â™ t spend a lot on presents
(He said, "Son, now donâ€Â™ t you all spend a lot of money on presents")
We just want you all at home"
("You know all momma and I want is just to have you all here at home")

But we $\hat{A} \notin \hat{A} \notin \hat{A}^{\text{TM}}$ II buy momma a new dress And daddy another tie And we $\hat{A} \notin \hat{A} \notin \hat{A}^{\text{TM}}$ II spend lots of time together And that $\hat{A} \notin \hat{A} \notin \hat{A}^{\text{TM}}$ s something you can $\hat{A} \notin \hat{A} \notin \hat{A}^{\text{TM}}$ t buy

The greatest Christmas present Is something you $can \tilde{A} \notin \hat{A} \notin \hat{A}^{m} t$ buy
