The closer you get
To blow in a party again
All know you're so low
The further you get
From giving your everything
He'll hope let go to know
You've got a diamond in your pocket
But it used to be coal
Slow down, you're running to find a way out
Wait up, you're missing what life is about
Yeah, I found out
Don't blow it when you have enough
Yeah, I found out
Just carry on and live it up
The harder it gets
To making you start again
All known from zero
The better it gets
To finding yourself my frind
He'll hope there you go on your own
You've got a silver in your pocket
But it used to be stone
Slow down, you're running to find a way out
Wait up, you're missing what life is about
Yeah, I found out
Don't blow it when you have enough
Yeah, I found out
Just carry on and live it up
Slow down, you're running to find a way out
Wait up, you're missing what life is about
Yeah, I found out
Don't blow it when you have enough
Yeah, I found out
Just carry on and live it up
