I wouldn't have thought that the morning's birth
Had ever made me feel so sad.
I wanna go down and see rosie.
She's the best friend that I ever had.

Providing your own revolutionary
Friends with you, when you call.
Not far away is a picture of shackled bars
At the darkened wall.

Oh, When I gonna go down...

I don't wanna feel nostalgic of you all.
Now that the time is short,
I wanna just keep on glowing and knowing
That nothing's get lost at the edge before we learn.

I wouldn't have thought that the morning's birth.
Had ever made me feel so bad.
I wanna go down and see rosie
She's the best friend that I ever had.

She's the best friend that I ever had.
Go gonna see her.
Gonna, gonna go - gonna, gonna go down to see her.
