Hey Levinia, old sweet sister,
Play the same song.
Colin is changing
And friends are all aging,
But he's never gone.
You chose to go your way,
I chose to go mine.

Down to the ocean I was drowned
And I'll take you to rescue our souls.
We'll watch this all bodingly
I could have stowed at those fishing the DOW.
You're still going your way,
You better go mine.

Hey Levinia, old sweet sister,
Play the same song.
Talking we're loosing now
All the illusions
That long have been gone.
You choose to go your way,
I'm going mine. Until I am.

Oh you going your way!
So I really say: You ought to go mine!
