As I turn to you for a helping hand you turn away
I guess that I live or even got born was my mistake
Don?t know if I get through to you the moments that I pray
Am I forsaken to evil to bad, why don?t you answer me?

I want out, so please show me the way
Help me take to the sky, set me free
Show me the way

What can I do to memorize you, what can I say Am I a brick in your game, the one to blame, ease my pain!

I want out, so please show me the way
Help me take to the sky, set me free
Show me the way

[CHORUS]

To live forever is my course, my destiny
I don?t want this any longer
I?m bound to this without a chance to rest in peace
I rather die in flames
Mortality is what I want and what I need
I wish that I was stronger
So I could rise again at last and to be free
Release me from the pain

I don?t want this no more, let me in to your heavenly abode
To this world I am useless, I am nothing at all, end it now!
Come take me away, don?t you make me stay, hear me
now!
What is left to attain, what is left to achieve, why don?t
you answer me

I want out, so please show me the way
Help me take to the sky, set me free
Show me the way

[CHORUS]

I wonder how this became my destiny
I wonder why you have forsaken me

Don't know if I get through to you the moments that I
pray
Am I forsaken to evil to bad, why don't you answer me?

I want out, so please show me the way
Help me take to the sky, set me free
Show me the way

[CHORUS]
