In the distance there's a light
My wish is to be there and I reach out
Shadows of darkened souls are soaring over me
Speaking words of hatred, telling me to leave

Leave this place, your soul's not welcome
No evil deeds have you done

What am I doing here, where am I
I need to find where I belong
A voice from nowhere, I ask its name
And it speaks to me

[CHORUS]

I am no one, I am all
I am the son of a thousand souls

I need to find my way to the light
And get away from this forsaken place
The shadows of darkened souls aren't shadows anymore
Hideous creators telling me to leave

Leave this place, your soul's not welcome
No evil deeds have you done

What am I doing here, where am I
I need to find where I belong
A voice from nowhere, I ask its name
And it speaks to me

[CHORUS]
