Flowers of evil shiver on the firing line
Whose face can please me now?
Boundless queen of Babylon, she rides above the sky,
I'm a devil, I'm an angel
The lights are getting brighter now,
Bold enough to slay your prayers
Unholy water you tell me the truth,
You tell me the lies
Unholy water you resurrect you crucify,
Take me down now
Leave if you're leavin', stay if you have the right
I've never been so alone, as I am with you tonight
The funeral season grows, I'm an angel, I'm a devil
Where did it go so wrong?
Close your eyes and say goodbye
Unholy water you're bringing me down, to live is to die
Unholy water the ending is clean, the ending is now
Unholy water the rapture is mine, I drown in your slime
Unholy water you're deep in it now, you're tasting it all
Unholy water
Unholy water one last caress, then solitude

Unholy water you're feeling it now, I never denied

Unholy water when love turns to hate with Satan you mate

Unholy water drown in the tears, a shadow of fear,

The ending, the ending is now

Unholy water her breasts where full, her hair was wept

Unholy water around her throat the Serpent crept

Unholy water she utters the truth, she utters lies

Unholy water she resurrects, she crucifies
