Many of time my world seemed upside down
I've had my share of sad tomorrows
Then you came along and brightened up my day
You gave me hope through stormy weather
You gave me joy and showed me just what love was all about
Yes I found out that I need you near to fill that empty space inside of me
It's very plain to see that I need your love
My life begins with you
It all seemed like a hopeless game I couldn't bare the part of losing
But love has the cure to ment beyond heartache
And now I'm sure that I am scoring(?)

about
Yes I found out that I need you near to fill that empty
space inside of me
It's very plain to see that I need your love
My life begins with you
That I need your love
My life begins with you

about
space inside of me
It's very plain to see that I need your love
My life begins with you
That I need your love
My life begins with you

That I need your love
My life begins with you

That I need your love
My life begins with you
