You found me on the battlefield
The battlefield of love
Needing attention
Needing someone to trust
We rode off together
In the nick of time
Into the sunset
With your hand holding mine

We lived in bliss together
Down by the waterfall
You and me together
And our love, that was all
But in your sore windows
I saw fear lurking there
Afraid to trust me
Afraid to share

Chorus:

Now we're sleeping with the enemy
We're ready to give up
We're sleeping with the enemy
What we've lost is trust
Yes we're sleeping with the enemy
Oh it hurts so much
Sleeping with the enemy
And the enemy is us.

Oh the battlefield is treacherous
There's hidden traps out there
That old green eyed one he will getcha
If you are not aware
Oh I wish that we could save us
But I'm afraid it's just too late
Sleeping with the enemy
Seems to be our fate

Chorus again
