You've changed in so many ways
But my love for you remains
I like it baby when you're close to me
And when you're whispering my name
I've become someone bitter, honey
That's what my friends all say
And it's you that I'm thankful for
Every single day

You're always on my mind
I look at you, it's all right
I get high
So high
I can't control what you do to me
Lord knows, I've tried
I get high
So high
There's a smile on my face each and every day
And you're the reason why
I get high

When we fight it's impossible
To stay mad at you for long
'cause you do all those things you do
I forget what went wrong
Yes I know life throws obstacles
Just to test the heart of me
But I know I can face it all
With you
With you, my baby
I'd be satisfied
Forever by your side

When I'm with you I get so high
