Don't pretend that you don't know me I won't pretend that I don't know you either It we ever happen to aggress on anything Let's just agree to disagree on everything If that's okay It's okay with me too

I'm not opposed to some divine intervention Anything to save me from ordinary convention It's life, but not as we know it It's life, wouldn't you know it

Don't pretend that you don't wish for something Perhaps to turn the clock or something similar to this Maybe you knew someone way back when Who should've been a lover and less like a friend Or maybe that's all irrelevant
