pray for the magic line you're praying all the time what you have will get you by and yes it does get in so how do you begin you can't hold that against me if there's something you can make from the tiny steps you take then use it in any way you think you like the sound but my diction isn't round improve it
you can't hold that against me
chorus
there's a kid in everyone but some are better at having fun do you like the way it's done
pray for the magic line
we're on your knees more than half the time that's dedication
you can't hold that against me
chorus
there's a longing in the blood and you just can't get enough it's better to be someplace than sorry there's a rhythm in the room repetition in the tune it's better to be someplace than sorry
