I get nervous at the thought of falling flat on my face
Just be patient I'll be famous for repeating mistakes
But I'll never play your favourite even if you demand it Im sure it's just a phase and I'll get over it I will get over it Second guessing every meaning of every word you might say
Hope to catch at any moment some message headed my way
But I'll never play your favourite even if you demand it Im sure it's just a phase and I'll get over it I will get over it
When will I learn to just play the game?
When will I learn it's only a name?
Such a silly thing
