Time in its old dress, eating itself nights are moving
And days are telling you a rain escort to get you there
And the power of a bad feeling remembers you, how it will go on ?

A walk through time cleft lie a stone
And the night embraces you black - To get you there

Thank you for the words, sorry that I miss you Bags full of things but that's no use to me
I only want to sing and I leave you now
Don't embrace me, now that I am here

A walk through time cleft like a stone
And the nights embraces you black - To get you there.
