The tide is coming in, patience wearing thin
See the smoke rising from the dying fire

I see you moving, you swoop in
Like a bird of prey
I see you moving, you swoop in
Like a bird of prey, yeah
I wish the waves would just wash you away

Ha ha you think you know me
Ha ha you're tempting me to shock you

I don't need, I don't need, I don't need your comparisons, oh no no oh
I wish the waves would just wash you away

I feel you watching, are you waiting?
I see you moving, you swoop in
Like a bird of prey
I wish the wind would just blow you away
You wished me dead today, ha

Ha ha you think you know me, mmm let me see
Oh you're tempting me now

You're running, you're running, you're running out of luck with me
Oh yeah, yeah you are

I won't take it anymore
Draw the line, close the door
I see you moving, you swoop in
Like a bird of prey
D'you wanna know my birthday wish?
