Hears the baby awake, leaves her feelings under the covers

Another day without her lover

Always finds a smile for the sunshine in her life

Making tea for one, why bother?

Tonight her friends are coming round

She said they're coming to hide me

Tell me what they think I need

Oh you know where to find me baby

When you were here

Our life was like a dream

When you were here

You loved me

When you were here

You said you'd never leave

When you were here

Oh I wish you were here

Re-arranged the place to make it feels like hers and she's not wrong

Just got used to his things for so long

Walls are caving in, there's no space no room to escape in

She's not the only one to miss him

When the baby smiles, she smiles like you

It's your picture she's kissing

Tonight if she cries will it be for you

Don't know what you're missing baby

When you were here

Our life was like a dream

When you were here

You loved me

When you were here

You said you'd never leave

When you were here

When you were here

Our life was like a dream

When you were here
You loved me
When you were here
You said you'd never leave
When you were here

When you were here
Our life was like a dream, like a dream
When you were here
You loved me
When you were here
You said you'd never leave
When you were here

When you were here
Our life was like a dream
When you were here, oh
You loved me
When you were here
You said you'd never leave
When you were here
