

Stephen Colbert

"Lord Of The Dance"

Visit "Lord Of The Dance" on MotoLyrics.com

On the bank of the Tennessee River
In a small Kentucky town
I drew my first breath one cold November morning
And before my feet even touched the ground
With the doctors and the nurses gathered 'round
I started to dance
I started to dance
A little boy full of wide-eyed wonder
Footloose and fancy free
But it would happen, as it does for every dancer
That I'd stumble on the a truth I couldn't see
And find a longing deep inside of me, it said...
I am the heart, I need the heartbeat
I am the eyes, I need the sight
I realize that I am just a body
I need the life
I move my feet, I move through the motions
But who'll give purpose to chance
I am the dancer
I need the Lord of the dance
The world beneath us spins in circles

And this life makes us twist and turn and sway
But we were made for more than
Rhythm with no reason
By the one who moves with passion and with grace
As He dances over all that He has made
I am the heart, He is the heartbeat
I am the eyes, He is the sight
And I see clearly, I am just a body
He is the life
I move my feet, I move through the motions
But He gives purpose to chance
I am the dancer
He is the Lord of the dance
And while the music of His love and mercy plays
I will fall down on my knees and I will pray
I am the heart, You are the heartbeat
I am the eyes, You are the sight
And I see clearly I am just a body
You are the life
I move my feet, I move through the motions,
But You give purpose to chance
I am the dancer,
You are the Lord of the dance

Visit Stephen Colbert page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

