She feels this aint no storybook
And if it were I'd say the characters were flawed

And some time it took
For me to read though
But now with back cover closed
I finally know

You got sunshine on the inside
It's not for everyone to see but it's clear to me
Maybe all she needs is for someone to plant the seed
And you'll feel your sunshine on the inside

Spent her share of evenings dreaming
Of all the things she's lost
Ink spills on important plot progressions
Pages torn by life lessons

But you wont forget

You got sunshine on the inside
It's not for everyone to see but it's clear to me
Maybe all she needs is for someone to plant the seed
And you'll feel your sunshine on the inside

It will be amazing
When you break out
And share your

Sunshine on the inside
Let it be for everyone to see and not just for me
From seed to tree you'll finally to feel
Your sunshine on the inside
