I love the look of your morning face Eyes hard to focus on the new world shapes

Head rests on chin, chin rests on neck, neck cocked to one side Tucked in your papa san oh mama come on give one reason

Why I should stay Right where I lay

Got no more time for the pick ups leading to the let downs
And if my prerogative is just to live for today
Then that's ok
You are more than welcome to come along for the ride

See how she never sleeps this little street underneath us
She never wakes makes perfect space for two such dreamers

Plug me in sink or swim it's my only way out Of This little hole so comfortable my mind has carved out

Why should I stay
In the bed I made Got no more time for the pick ups leading to the let
downs

My god I wish it would rain
Because I love the weather feels the same as I do There's so many shades of grey Why do I need to say which one I'm falling through

Leave me where I lay It's my choice to stay

Got no more time for the pick ups leading to the let
downs
And if my purgative is just to live for today

Then that's ok
But you're more than welcome to come along if you choose
And I hope you do
