Shoeshine girl from New York State, I'll never curse my fate

Your family, your love of me and the way you made me wait

A catholic girl, cranberry curls, one-thousand eighty days

Stars, Stripes and Paisley, the saddest anniversary Every day the dream of perfect love gets blown away *As good as it has been,

I wouldn't change a thing But I'd also never go back again As good as it has been

Pale-faced protector, acting like an actor, I (you) did the best I (you) could

The hardest part of letting go is to smile as your lover goes

Then say that you understood

You would pout, we'd work it out but sometimes it got tough

With Sun Junky boys, Suburban toys, as good as it has been it's never been enough

The water and the phoenix Were never meant to mix It's a sure fired end As good as it has been
